Ideas. On the move.

Fast and furious

Cheetahs are, without a doubt, the fastest creatures on land. In order to catch up with a prey that's as swift as the wind, the cheetah had to develop the ability to run as fast, or faster than the gazelle, or face the alternative starvation.

On goals

Although the places seems to have got closer, It's still daunting task to transfer goods from one place to another. Adding to the challenge are the local procedures. And to solve this, comes Sevenses, India's Leading provider of freight forwarding and logistics services since a decade. Offering a full range of international services for the movement of international, commercial and retail goods. Add our pan India network that takes you all important cities of India: Chennai, Cochin, Tuticorin, Karur, Coimbatore, Tirupur,Hyderabad, Vizag, Mumbai, Pune,New Delhi, Ludhiana, Kalkatta. and what you have is India's finest logistics solution provider

We've created a network for today's interconnected world. A network that's global and built on a solid foundation. Our comprehensive logistic solution helps you gain an edge in today's extensive competitive world. Being in the business of freight , we strictly believe that clear and efficient information is vital in order to server our customers efficiently. Keeping in pace with time, continuous upgradation of the system and the consistent mission to be on top , Sevenses aspires to be a single window solution provider in the logistics domain.

On standards

Whether it's warehouse management, information technology or cargo security, Sevenses Logistics is up-to-date on advanced systems and solutions. Stringent customized SOPs have won laurels from clients and agents worldwide for the whole decade of our existence. And no matter where in the world you go, you'll witness Sevenses' consistent high standard. Our pan India reach is supported through 12 global service centers and relationships well connected across the country.

We comply with latest measures to ensure excellent security systems for the goods. The employees are the best in the business; masters of time management and experts at organizing and supervising the move, moreover the best HR policies make our services the finest.

Swift and sleek

Snakes strike at prey with uncanny accuracy even when blindfolded, a feat that's been hard to explain. They are known to use infrared sensing organs, this skill has amazed the scientists worldwide.

On possibilities

India is already a heavyweight globally, in the trade sector. Looking ahead, India is going to play an increasing role in driving world economic trade, which results in huge capital goods movement. To meet this demand chain, Sevenses provides over dimensional cargo movement using special equipment, chartered vessels, flights and more, even undertaken as turnkey projects. Moreover critical deliveries are well taken care of with flash cargo movement.

Sevenses' clientele represents a broad international spectrum of industries including garments, footwear, electronics, telecommunications, optical, gifts and premium items. We provide comprehensive professional support needed for managing your supply chain, encompassing needs of sourcing of raw materials, processing, manufacturing and assembly to produce your end product and ultimately the delivery of finished product to your end customers. We have been thinking creatively to solve the most complex logistics assignments and making it easier for the customers.

Hush and hardworking

Ants prove the point, 'hard work always pays off'. They busily prepare for the future without resting or reflecting. Ants get things done by accident, by experimenting with and constantly testing their surroundings.

Air freight

As an IATA approved agent we maintain direct contracts with a variety of air carriers to provide the most effective solutions to our clients and agents. The way we move your goods is determined by your delivery deadline. We get your shipments to their destination on time, in good shape and at lowest possible cost. Apart from chartering flights, we have placed experts OP teams at major airports operating 24/7.

We take extra care and meticulousness to transport your goods and comply with all the aviation and safety regulations, having expert knowledge of customs regulations, maintaining worldwide expertise of import/export restrictions and timely pick-ups, ensuring a hassle-free delivery.

Powerful and smooth

The Peregrine Falcon is often stated to be the fastest animal on the planet in its hunting dive, the stoop, which involves soaring to a great height and then diving steeply and hitting one wing of its prey so as not to harm itself on impact.

Ocean Freight

Sea Freight does not need to be slow. A speedy and clear booking and communication process and flexible arrangements help our customers meet their deadlines. Careful selection of professional routing and carriers lead to the most suitable solutions. We work with quality shipping lines and overseas partners to ensure consistent and reliable service.

Sevenseas with its high volume handling capabilities is the most preferred logistics company in the country.

Smart and intelligent

Dolphins or intelligence of the sea. Surprisingly the dolphin brain is actually much larger than the human brain and that allows it to make immediate and often complicated judgments that are well beyond the scope of human ability.

On places

Our services have no boundaries. Sevensseas' worldwide reach is supported by a carefully selected network of partners spread over continents chosen on the basis of their strength in the respective country. For this we rely on the local competence of the partner than their global presence. It gives us an advantage over global players in dealing with complications related to local nitty-gritty.

Fins and feathers

Highly adapted for life in the water, penguins have counter shaded dark and white plumage. They spend about half of their life on land and half in the oceans. Penguins redefine the geographical limitations of living beings.

Warehousing & Distribution

A pinnacle quality of our warehousing services include, tailor made solutions for every single client; ranging from a convenient pickup methodology, to the most proficient storage equipment. Dedicated tracking solutions always on the move enable the smoothest distribution possible. Complimenting the work force is our integrated network of MHE and ICD handling units guaranteeing the highest protocol of quality and cost efficiency.

Housing and holding

Bees employ a dedicated course of conserving honey. Maintaining the right balance of moisture against the sugar, they enable the fluid to survive for ages; an ingenious method to store.
